AMERICANS WILL NAME NEW MAYOR

Caucus of Council Majority Will Be Held to Select Thompson's Successor.

MORMONS LIMITED TO COMPLIMENTARY VOTE

Members Generally Reluctant at Present to Give Expression to Choice.

That the successor of Ezra Thompson as Mayor of Salt Lake City will be selected in the caucus of the American party Councilmen, and that the American majority will vote in a body for the man thus selected, is a foregone conclusion. The six Mormon members of the Council, in all probability, will east a complimentary vote for some good Latter-day Saint, probably former Mayor Richard P. Morris. The election probably will take place next Monday night. Mayor Thompson's resignation will take effect next Monday. The Mornon Councilmen are hoping that there will be a division in the ranks of the American Councilmen, and that they themselves will have the de-ciding vote in the naming of Mayor Thompson's saccessor; but there is no probability of that. Four of the five American Councilmer who are in the city expressed the belief Tuesday that the selection should be made by caucus

Martin for Col. Wall.

Courcilman L. D. Martin, when asked Tuesday for his choice for Mayor, said: "I am for Col. E. A. Wall. In my judgment, he is the first choice of the rank and file of the American of the rank and file of the American party. If, as reported, he won't take the place, I have no other man in mind now. Côl. Wall is usright, able, and thoroughly competent. He understands eity affairs from A to Izzard. He would make a splendid Mayor, and if placed at the head of our ticket this fall would make an invincible caudidate. I intend doing all I can to induce him to accept the place. Of course there will be a caucus to settle the matter." the matter. Councilman Martin E. Mulvey said:

'I haven't a word to say till we get into caucus. The American Council caucus should settle the matter once and for all, and then we should vote in a body for the man thus selected. I'll make my choice known in caucus." Favors a City Councilman.

Councilman C. J. Crabtree favors se lecting some American member of the City Council,

"I feel that some City Councilman should be selected," he said, "because certain policies have been agreed upon certain policies have been agreed upon for this administration, and the Councilmen are all thoroughly familiar with those policies and are in a position to carry them out. I favor (of Wall's noministion for the full term, though I am afraid he would not accept even that. I don't think it would be justice to him, however, or to any outsider, to put him in for the few months that remain of the present term. However, the matter will be thoroughly discussed in cancus."

cussed in cancus."

Councilman Thomas Hobday declined to talk. He declared that he was trying to ascertain the views of his constituency, and hadn't given the matter sufficient attention yet to announce a choice. Councilman W. Mont Ferry is camping in the Cottonwoods. Councilman A. R. Carter is in Versida. man A. R. Carter is in Nevada. President A. J. Davis is in Chicago, and Councilman E. G. O'Donnell is in Idabo. All the absentees will be back in Salt Lake the latter part of the present week.

Councilman T. R. Black said: "I favor nominating a straight out American in an American party caucus, and electing him on the open floor of the Council dom has there been seen such a prodigal display of spectacular interest" as that of the grand pageant which marks the beginning of each performance.

Although some of the attractions have been eliminated during recent years, and for that reason the performance is not as dazzling as formerly. It has by no means deteriorated, for what is lacking in quantity is compensated for in quality. All of this became apparent in the first display when the employees of the circus with their costly appurtenances marched before the spectators who occupied nearly all the available senting space of the capacions tent and portrayed the types of the most picturesque periods of the world's history. There have been more extensive performances, but it is doubtful if they were as artistic when considered in the aggregation of star performances it would be difficult to determine which is the most deserving of praise, but there were some performers among the numerous groups, who, for their wonderful shillty and unusual daring, won ances it would be difficult to determine which is the most deserving of praise, but there were some performers among the numerous groups, who, for their wonderful shility and unusual daring, won the applause of all the specialicis.

One of the feature performances among the symnasis was that by Alexander Patty, the man who walks on his head down a flight of statrs. Then there were the performances by the "Ten Jordans" and the "Clarkonians," which were the performances by the "Ten Jordans" and the "Clarkonians," which were the pick of the serial acts, a Japanese and a Persian troupe, prominent among the acrobats, besides numerous thrilling specialties in tight-wire walking, contortion, juggling, blcycle riding, and equestrian performances. Of course, the programme would not have been complete without including the anties of the clowns and this feature was not overlooked. One of the leading clown acts was that of a buriesque bull fight but there were others galore. Provision also had been made for the entertainment of those who enjoy animal performances. Among the best in this line were the troupe of elephant comedians, the "good-night" horse and a school of trained pigs.

The five special trains of the Ringling circus arrived from Ogden early Tuesday morning and before noon the tents and equipment were transported to Eighth South and Main streets and placed in readiness for the afternoon performance. Shortly before 11 a. m. the monster, parade proceeded up State street to South Temple and south on Main street. It is needless to say that the streats along nearly the entire line of the procession were packed with spectators and it was evident that many from out of town had come to see the performances. The attendance was as large as the main tent could accommodate and shout the only disagreeable feature was the suffocating heat, as there had been practically no provision for ventilation.

It does not forbid the remarriage of divorced people, so the question which for a time threatened the marriage was cleared away.

John D. Hagman brought suit in the District court Tuesday against the Utah Light and Railway company for $3000 damages. Hagman alleges that on the night of July 23, this year, he was a passenger on a Warm Springs car, that he tendered the conductor 50 cents for fare and only received 40 cents in change. He declares that when he called the conductor's attention to the mistake, the conductor became angry. He then took out a pencil, he says, to write down the condictor's number, whereupon that person, he claims, assaulted him with his fists, blacking his eyes and breaking his nose. The conductor, he charges, threw his arm around his neck and pounded him in the face.

DROPS MATCH IN BARREL: TAKES UPWARD FLIGHT

A lad, 12 or 12 years old, who lives in the neighborhood of Fifth South and West Teinple streets—name unknown—Tuesday afternoon experimented with an empty whisky barrel in the rear of the Falstaff saloon on State street, near Second South, by dropping lighted matches into the barrel through the hole in the head, while he was sitting on the top, and was slown fifteen or twenty feet into the air and severely burned by the explosion of the gas that had formed inside. The lad was not badly hurt, but his face was severely burned and he probably will be marked from the explosion for life.

The lad said he was rolling a lighted match around on the head of the barrel, and it accidentally dropped into the barrel through the small hole in the head. The head was torn out and the explosion inceremoniously raised the boy into the air and threw him against the side of a nearby building, twenty feet away. The noise attracted several persons, among them Special Policeman Lry, who is stationed at the City and County building, and the officer took the boy to the emerkency hospital at the city jail, but his burns needed no particular attention and he was sent home.

The boy has registered a vow not to monkey with capty whisky barrels any more.

> SENT TO JAIL FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

New Tutors in Many Subjects District Court Interferes, and Prison Officials In Now Victim Brings Suit for $15,000.

> Walter Best, a collector who recently was sent to the county jail by Charles F. Durand, the notorious Murray Justice of the Peace, and who subsequently was released on a writ of habeas corpus issued by the District court, filed a suit for $15,000 damages for false imprisonment against Durand, Francis G. and ment against Durand, Francis G and James A Luke, Attorney Thomas Kane, L. D. Dull, a dentist, and Durand's bondemen in the District court Tuenday. Dull is the man who sued Best in Durand's court. The two Lukes and Attorney Kane represented Duil in the suit. In his complaint Best says that he had filled the statutory affidavit attacking the jurisdiction of Durand to try the suit which Dull brought, and that absolutely without notice of him, or giving tilm an opportunity to be heard, Durand proceeded to render judgment against him. Then he issued a citation directing Best to appear and disclose what property he owned, and, for disobeying this citation, the Justice fined him 8 for contempt and committed him to lail. In the District committed him to jail. In court Judge Ritchie summarily called to his attention.

In his suit for false imprisonment Best declares that he has suffered greatly in reputation by reason of the acts comreputation by reason of the acts com-plained of: that he was placed in an iron cell, forced to sleep two nights on a hard ped, and to associate with persons ac-I, and to associate with persons ac-sed of felonies and other disreputable

Among the Sheriff's officials, lawyers and everybody who knows anything about Durand's methods of conducting his alleged tribunal of justice, the fervent hope is expressed that the Murray "dogberry" has caught a Tartar at last, and that Best will press his suit for false imprisonment to the limit.

Time and again Durand has made illegal orders and issued illegal judgments. So often have outraged litigants appealed to the District court for protection against his extertions, that his very name has become a nightmare to court officials and Judges. County Attorney Willard Hauson will take no proceeding against him, and thus far those who have been victimized by his court have either been unable or unwilling to proceed against him.

Best, however, has determined to go down the line against Durand. In addition to asking for $15,000 damages for false imprisonment, he asks $103.40, which he says he expended to get himself out of jail on a writ of habeas corpus, and $45 which he declares he lost in wages while he was fighting the case.

HELENA Mont. Aug. 5.—Judge Hunt, in the United States court today, heard arguments on the application of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company for a temporary writ to restrain the president and secretary of the Montana Federation of Labor from conducting a boycott against it, and will hear arguments as to the Livingston trades unions tomorrow. The State is practically without telephone service, so far as can be learned, and the effect on business is proving most vexatious.

A Helena firm will tomorrow bring mandamus proceedings to compel the company to furnish service.
